FORT WILLIAM, the 27th November 1891.

SIR,

I am directed to invite your attention to the notification of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 2651 I., dated the 25th June 1891, containing orders in regard to the publication of newspapers in territories under the administration of the Governor-General in Council but beyond the limits of British India.

2. I am to say that the utmost caution should be exercised in acting under this notification, and I am to request that the approval of the Government of India may be obtained before any orders are issued by you for the withdrawal of a license to publish a newspaper, or for the enforcement of the penalties for disobedience laid down in the notification.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

CONFIDENTIAL.

No. 3942 I.

FROM

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

To

THE RESIDENT AT HYDERABAD.

FOREIGN DEPT.

SIMLA, the 19th October 1892.

SIR,

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 251, dated the 5th September 1892, regarding the publication of the "Deccan Advertiser" by Mr. Fernandez at Secunderabad.

2. With your letter No. 217, dated the 22nd July last, you forwarded a portion of the "Deccan Advertiser" as issued on the 22nd June, which contained an obscene paragraph, and you suggested that the license granted to Mr. Fernandez should be withdrawn. You were then asked to furnish the Government of India with copies of the licenses granted in this and other similar cases.

3. It now appears from your letter of the 5th September that Mr. Fernandez was authorised to publish the 'Advertiser' by letter, but that no formal license was granted to him; and you explain that it has been the practice for persons desirous of publishing, within the Residency jurisdiction, anything in the shape of a journal—whether entirely devoted to advertisements or not—to apply for the Resident's permission. You propose to take no steps in the case of the 'Deccan Advertiser' in the present instance; but, if the publication of that paper is resumed, and any public news or comment on public news are inserted in it, you propose to proceed against Mr. Fernandez, for publishing the same without the written permission required by the Notification of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 2651 I., dated the 25th June 1891. It is further understood that you will in future decline to give permission in the case of mere advertising publications, which do not fall within the terms of the Notification, and will inform applicants that the Resident's authority is not required in such cases.

269-1891

4. I am to say that the Government of India approve of your acting for the future in the manner indicated above. It will be necessary for you to determine in each case whether a publication falls within the terms of the Notification of the 25th June 1891 or not; but there will, it is apprehended, be no difficulty in deciding this question in ordinary cases; and any special or doubtful case should be referred for the orders of the Governor-General in Council.

FROM

THE Deputy SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
in the Foreign Department,

To

The Resident in Mysore,

Dated Simla, the 8th August 1899.

SIR

I am directed to forward a copy of a letter from Wm. F. Goodall, Editor of the Evening Mail, Bangalore, regarding the Notification of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 2651, dated the 25th June 1891, which prescribed certain orders respecting the publication of newspapers and other printed works in places administered by the Governor General in Council, but not forming part of British India.

To the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Viceroy, dated the 5th June 1899.

2 As you are aware there are valid political reasons for maintaining the above orders. They were issued to protect Native Chiefs from the attacks of Newspapers, which in the portions of State territory made over to the British Government for imperial purposes made use of British protection to do what they did not dare to do elsewhere in the State, viz:- to abuse the Native administration. This might be explained to Mr. Goodall who does not appear to have suffered or to be likely to suffer from the operation of these orders.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

H. Daly

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

(Copy.)

Evening Mail Office,

Bangalore, 5th June 1899.

To

The Private Secretary,

To His Excellency the Viceroy.

Sir,

I should feel much obliged if you would kindly bring to the notice of His Excellency Lord Curzon, an anomaly in connection with the Press in a few places in India. In 1891, a Notification, No 2651 I, dated 25th June was issued to the effect that certain rules should apply to newspapers published in Stations where Political Agents were the Administrators. I enclose a copy of the Notification for the kind perusal of His Lordship, and I think he will come to the conclusion that it casts a most invidious slur upon a section of the Press. Of course, as you are aware, the Press in question is subject to all the other laws to which it is subject in every part of India. The extension of Section 124 A of the Penal Code rules in these tracts as well as in every other part of the country. If a paper transgresses it can be tried under this Section, and its conductors punished accord= ing to the merits of the case. No one can complain of a law when it applies to every one, but when an invidious distinction is made as in my case, and a few others it is only right that a complaint should be made and therefore I most respectfully beg that His Excellency the Viceroy would cancel the Notification sent forth by his predecessor the Marquis of Lansdowne.

If the conductors of papers in tracts under the administration of Political Agents could see any necessity for the order they would willingly submit to it. But no reason has ever been assigned; no reason can be imagined. It has been hinted that some of the Vernacular papers published in these Districts are seditious and ought to be brought under close supervision. Granting that they are, the law is strong enough to reach them. The law of libel in India is very severe, a complainant need not show he has suffered in reputation in any way, he has only to prove that the statements made about him are defamatory, and the offender can be imprisoned and heavily fined. If a paper transgresses against the Government it can at once be proceeded against under the Section I have mentioned, and the punishment meted out may be very severe.

The order is not only arbitrary, but I submit that it is extremely anomalous and absurd. It does not apply either to British Territory or to the Native States. A newspaper in a District administered by a Political Agent is brought under the notification, while another paper (not a mile away) may be perfectly free and unfettered. The journal of which I am Editor is published in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, ~~[illegible]~~ the surveillance of the British Resident in Mysore, while about a couple of miles distant, in the City of Bangalore which belongs to the the Maharajah, a newspaper can be published without permission, and has nothing to fear if the law is not transgressed. This will show the invidiousness and absurdity of the order in question. When the Notification was first given to the world a leading London journal said that nothing more despotic could be found in Russia or even in Turkey. I cannot help agreeing with what the paper said, and I trust His Excellency will see his way to cancel the Notification, and thus free the Press of the Districts in question from an invidious and undeserved punishment.

I hope I may make a personal appeal to His Lordship in this matter. I have been more than forty years in India; I have tried to do some good to the people both as an educationist and a journalist. I have had a good record during my long stay in this land; I am not only a fellow country-man of His Excellency the Viceroy, but also a fellow county man and I therefore respectfully ask him whether it is right that I should be placed under such an unhappy ban as I am at present; whether the Surveillance of a ticket of leave man should apply to me, and whether it is right that I should be cast out of a place where I wish to reside as was the leper under the Mosaic law, and not allowed to return.

In conclusion, I appeal to His Excellency's sense of justice, of which we has seen so much since he arrived in the country, and I trust he may see the injustice of the Notification, and the dishonour which it brings not only upon myself and a few others, but also upon the Government of India, and have it cancelled.

I am,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

To

The Collector and District Magistrate
Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to lay this application before the British Resident for permission to run newspaper in Bangalore; and trust it may receive favorable Consideras

As you are aware there is no first class paper published in this Province. It is my ambition to start a first class daily here, to be called the "Southern Star" or the "Daily Recorder" in which I hope to be able to give the public up-to-date and reliable news and telegrams. I have been editing the Bangalore "Daily Post" for abou eight months and therefore have a pretty good idea of what the pu requirements in the newspaper line are. The tradespeople need a good paper to help them in the way of advertisements, and many of the principal firms here have, from the 1st inst., withdraw their advertisements from the "Daily Post" because, as they told them they were getting no return from them.

The tone of the newspaper I propose to start will be as fair as I can make it to that of the "Madras Mail" on the staff which I served for six years and a quarter. Politics will form no feature of the paper. News telegraphic and otherwise, as I will endeavour to obtain. I shall hold myself not to make the paper a party journal in any sense of the word. The paper will circulate throughout Southern India principally & I have already secured the names of 150 subscribers to start with — most of them Europeans. For the past 16 years I have been connected with journalism in India, having served with the Madras Mail, the Pioneer, the Times of India & other papers. For three years I edited the 'Deccan Herald' in Poona and from 1893 to 1896 I was joint proprietor and Editor of the 'Advocate of India', Bombay. I shall be glad to furnish you with any further particulars that you may require.

Your obedient Servant

The Company is to be formed to acquire, amalgamate, carry on and extend the well-known businesses of Job and Newspaper Printers and Publishers at present carried on, as Going Concerns, under the styles of the Daily Post and Examiner Press and the Paragon Printing Press, (the former including the Daily Post and Examiner Newspapers) both situate in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore and under the Government of the area known as the Assigned Tract in Mysore. And to acquire suitable business premises on the South Parade.

The first named business was founded in the year 1860 by the late Mr. James William Hayes, and from a small beginning has steadily increased until at the present time it is believed to occupy the unique and well-known position of the largest business of its kind in the Provinces of Mysore and Coorg and the Madras Presidency outside the limits of the City of Madras. Owing to the death of the founder's son a few months ago, the business has become available to a Company of shareholders and is open to their acquisition with the consent of the Administrators of the estate and of the Joint Guardians of the minor children of the late Mr. Richmond Francis Hayes, son of the founder, as aforesaid.

The business known as the Paragon Printing Press, which is of recent establishment as a partnership concern, found a strong place in public favour immediately and has been conducted at a phenomenal rate of profit, the return on the gross invested capital for the twelve months ending 31st December 1899, being as much as Rs. 50-8-0 per cent, a fact which is borne out by the books of the business and certified to by an expert auditor. Special stress is laid on this point because the business is still in its comparative infancy, unlike an old established concern like the Daily Post and Examiner Press, whose popularity and prosperity are both matters of local and Provincial repute.

There can be no truer criterion of the progress of a business like Printing and Publishing than the increase, from time to time, in the number of its machines, material and plant, appurtenances and employees.

The assets of the Properties to be acquired, amalgamated, carried on and extended have been duly examined and valued by the promoters.

The purchase price of the Daily Post and Examiner Press, exclusive of liabilities but with the Good-will, has been fixed at Rs. 25,000, payable as to Rs. 19,000 in cash and the balance in Shares of the Company.

The purchase price of the Paragon Printing Press, with the Good-will, (there being no liabilities) has been fixed at Rs. 15,000, payable as to Rs. 10,000 in cash and the balance in Shares of the Company.

Mr. William Henry Johnson, at present Lessee of the Paragon Printing Press, undertakes to serve as Secretary for a period of not less than five years from the incorporation of the Company, and to well and faithfully supervise, control and otherwise attend to the up-keep and safe custody of the presses, type, materials, machinery, plant, etc., and to carefully supervise the servants employed in the working of the said Presses.
